Sparrowhawk	Sienna
Buzzard	Isobel
Mrs Seymour	Otto

Attendance

For the autumn term, our attendance was the 2nd highest within our locality averaging 96.2% at Bury with the locality averaging 93.9%. Unfortunately, our attendance has started to drop this term as unauthorised holiday absences have increased.

The chart below will help you to see what the attendance percentage equates to as a number of days. The colours represent the level of impact on future life chances*.

*Drager et al 2024, found in their longitudinal study of school attendance and the same individual's unemployment and earnings at age 42, that: "Predominantly, absences increased the likelihood of acquiring no qualifications and being non-employed... Individuals who missed five days of school at age 10 were 5.2% more likely to have obtained no qualifications and 4.1% more likely to be out of the labour force."

Wassail

We are looking forward to welcoming parents to our Wassail on Thursday afternoon. We are hoping the rain holds off. If this looks like not being the case, as we get closer to Thursday an update will be sent to you all.

Writing with the Royal Shakespeare Company

Many of you will recall that Yr 5 are part of a research project this year working with the RSC to improve writing. The following piece from Mia in Yr 6 would suggest it (along with the quality of Mrs Braun's teaching) is having a positive effect. Enjoy.

The Witches

One witch appeared from the howling wind, another from a broom with room for two of their elongated bodies. The pair stepped down meeting the third, dusk flying out of the hay bristles, a thin layer of grey covering the heath. Horrid laughter crackling out of their scrawny, bony bodies.

"A snake from the gens, a stolen injured her." The raspy voice spoke, bone-chilling and hoarse, the other spoke in the same - only higher- voice.

"The blue eyes of babies, dogs with rabies." Hopeless carcasses of some, not even dead creatures. The whimpers of dogs and hisses of snakes.

Finally, the third, tallest and thinnest, kicking the cauldron as it smokes and bubbles. The crooked heel and patched up boot, stepping back as the potion took root. "Let it cook let it simmer this one will be a winner." Finally the first and second grinning wide at the thoughts and pictures not just depicted in their minds.

Bury C.E. Primary School

Womans cloaks and long black skirts swirling in a pretty circle. Maybe that was the only satisfying thing in dark magic; the fragile scene of laced skirts in the shine of the moon.

Another moment of broken giggles from shattered souls, the three pleased faces of the withes, scrunched up and almost looking painful. Warts looking more disgusting in the natural light.

Bury Rangers

Please ensure your child has a pair of wellies or outdoor boots that can be worn just for the Bury Rangers session – they will need another pair of shoes for the rest of the day.

A reminder of what children should be wearing for PE Kit:

PE Kit:

Green Bury T-shirt, black shorts (tracksuits may be worn for outside lessons), plimsolls or trainers. Plus shin pads and mouth-guards for Sparrowhawks and Buzzards

Birthdays

Children can wear their own clothes for the day (or a day either side of the holiday) when it is their birthday. Please do not send the children in with cakes or sweets to share. In its place, we thought that instead of sweets it would be a good idea to buy a book for the school/class. The children then present the book to the school in assembly before placing it in our school library (although most ask for it to be shared in their class first). Please do inscribe a message in the book so that it keeps reminding the child of their birthday every time either they, or a friend, borrow the book. The link below is an Amazon wish list where the staff and children have selected some books that they would like for school.

Birthday Book wish list

Please do not feel constrained by the list, nor feel you have to get them through Amazon –locally we have great bookshops in Arundel and Petworth both of which have a very good selection of children's books. It is also great to receive a book chosen by your child because it is something they are particularly interested in. James at The Crow Road Books in Arundel will give you 10% discount if you show him this letter. If you are looking for something that is tricky to find, please email James in advance and he will do his best to help you
