

artefact

chronological

Impreial Trans
Antarctic Expedition

primary source

secondary source

The Endurance

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Shackleton's expedition to cross Antarctica from 1914 – 1917. The Endurance was stuck in the pack ice. The crew sailed to a lifeboat to Elephant Island and waited for Shackleton and some of his men to make it to South Georgia Island, from where they sent a rescue ship.

In time order from earliest to most recent.

An object from the time period.

The ship in which Shackleton and his crew sailed to Antarctica in 1914.

A piece of evidence made after an event happened. It may contain pieces of primary source or the author may have used pieces of primary sources to help them.

A piece of evidence from the time. This could be something written by a person from the time, a photo, video or recording from the time, a document made at the time or an artefact.

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here

Insert text here